HOTELS.

LOOKOUT MOUNTAIN HOUSE,
Near Chattanooga, Tenn.

THERE'S no more pleasant spot for a Summer residence than the summit of Lookout Mountain. The scenery is unsurpassed in grandeur and affords great delight to the lovers of nature.

Looking to the North and East, from the MOUNTAIN HOUSE, a varied landscape is spread to the sight and out among the hills, till far away in the distance its waters seem to blend with the clouds. Wooded hills and fruitful valleys, with waving fields of corn and grain, stretching as far as the vision reach in the horizon, where the faint outlines of the Great Smoky Mountains are traced upon the sky.

It has all the telegraph and mail facilities, being but an hour's ride from Chattanooga.

Here in the peaceful days before the war, the beauty and intelligence of the South came every Summer to breathe the pure mountain air, and it will soon again be the favorite summer resort of all who, tired of the unhealthful and invigorating of body, amid the finest scenery in the country.

A Card.

WE will at once rebuild our warehouse, and will have it completed by the first of September, but by first day of that month we will be ready to receive goods in store.

The goods will be divided into three departments, for fire proof compartments, and covered with tin. Those who have patronized us for the last two seasons, and those who may have proposed to do so the approaching one, may rest assured we will be ready for them.

We contemplate establishing a Cotton Compress in connection with our warehouses, upon an advanced plan, which will be ready by the 1st of October or sooner. The proximity of our establishment to the river renders the handling of cotton so convenient that we can transfer each bale from the platform of drayage. The advantage of the position is equal to one drayage each bale, as compared with the shipment from other warehouses, while on all outward shipments by compress a saving of compress charges will be effected, since it would be of no advantage to transfer it from one boat to another for us to turn it out in the ordinary way for transfer by drays.

[WESTERN ASSOCIATED PRESS REPORTS.]

CLEVELAND, September 11.—The Fenian congress adjourned yesterday after one week's stormy session. The question whether women should be admitted to circles was answered in the negative because of their inability to keep secrets. President Roberts' report of his foreign mission was read. He stated he found the Fenians of Ireland much discouraged at the failure of the Canadian invasion, but finally succeeded in convincing them that it was owing to the corruption and masterly inactivity of the Stephens wing. He was pleased to announce he had effected a bond of union between the brotherhoods of Ireland and America. He said Irish independence could not be achieved without the aid of American Irishmen.

Col. Roberts was re-elected president, but declined unless congress would raise $500,000 for the cause. Half that amount was pledged, and after further consultation Roberts accepted the position. A declaration of principles was afterwards adopted and given to the public, as were a series of resolutions which professed hearty co-operation with the friendly press, disclaiming and forbidding any use of the brotherhood for political purposes in connection with the present parties in this country, etc.

NEW YORK, September 11.—A New York special says Ben. Wade made a speech at Cleveland, Ohio, yesterday. Very little enthusiasm was manifested among his audience, which was composed of about five hundred persons. He expressed his conviction that the country is in a perilous crisis; that the president intended to enforce his policy at the point of the bayonet. In private conversation he afterwards remarked that the late amnesty proclamation was war upon the nation, and that impeachment ought to be expected.

Another batch of the correspondence, concerning the Alabama claims, has been published.

A Bangor, Maine, special says the result of the election yesterday in Maine astonished both parties. The immense republican majority last year, which was 28,000, has been cut if not entirely overcome, and it will take some days to decide whether the radical candidate for Governor is elected. The counties of York, Knox, Lincoln, Washington and Aroostook certainly have been gained by the democrats, and others are in doubt.

The Herald's Washington special says the committee investigating the treatment of Union prisoners in rebel prisons, are daily receiving a large number of letters from intelligent men who have partaken of the hospitality of rebel prisons, all of which are being arranged and briefed. It is thought the committee will meet here about the first of October.

Merchants and other business men in Richmond are very indignant at the false charge of general insolvency brought against them by the correspondent of a New York radical paper, and will probably hold a meeting to denounce the author of the report.

Lord Stanley, in his dispatch dated May 24th, handed to Mr. Seward by Sir Frederick Bruce, while the two were fishing at Auburn during the summer, consents to arbitration, provided two distinct tribunals were established—one to decide the responsibility incurred by the British government in the depredations committed by rebel privateers, and then to adjudicate the general claims on both sides. To this Mr. Seward, in dispatch dated August 12th, objects as unnecessary, claiming that if there should be two tribunals, they should be clothed with the same power.

Excitement in Brooklyn is considerable, over alleged fraudulent operations among high revenue officials. Deputy Collector Allen has published a card, declaring the whole charge malicious, but withholding further developments on his own side of the controversy until his principal, Mr. Callicott, returns from Washington.

FOREIGN.

BERLIN, September 11.—The second parliament of the confederation of the North German states met to-day. It was formally opened by King William in a speech. The king commenced by addressing a warm welcome to the representatives as members of the first German parliament which had met under the new constitution. Alluding to the position of the North German states, he said that the natural relations with the rest of Germany had been fixed by the creation of Zolverein, which they had signed. He assured the members that the financial condition of the confederation was excellent. Its revenue, so far, has been quite sufficient to meet all expenditures. He promised that bills would be introduced providing for the complete and equal settlement of terms and conditions of military service, making all necessary regulations, passports, prescribing weights and measures for the country, regulating postal matters with foreign nations, and looking to the establishment of consulates in all foreign ports and protection to the commercial and marine of the confederation everywhere on the high seas. The king concluded his speech with the following peaceful aspiration: "Gentlemen: Progress is to be the great principle underlying all your discussions. Your work will be a work of peace, and, by God's blessing, the fatherland will in peace enjoy the fruits of your labor."

CONSTANTINOPLE, September 11.—The Russian ambassador has presented the porte with another note of his government, which demands the cession of Crete to Greece, and full equality to all Christians and Mahommedans in the provinces of Turkey. The ultimatum is declared to be the ultimatum in Russia, and an answer is asked within ten days. In the diplomatic circles war is regarded as almost inevitable.

STATE NEWS.

—Capt. Judd, an officer of the freedmen's bureau in Pulaski county, has rendered himself so obnoxious that he cannot obtain a place to board.

—The editor of the Daily American Union is eloquent over the assaults of the swarms of mosquitos just now infesting Chattanooga. At the same place wheat was selling on Tuesday at $1 55 per bushel, and scarce.

—The Union and Dispatch of the 10th is not complimentary to the denizens of Nashville. It says: Up to the 31st of August there had been one hundred persons who had registered as bankrupts in this district. If all who really ought to be advantage of this law would do it, there would be one thousand instead of one hundred.

—Mr. Abraham Myers, of Nashville, who fell and fatally injured himself last Saturday evening, at Louisville, Ky., was buried on Monday at the former city, by the "independent order of red men," of which fraternity he was a member, with all the peculiarly impressive ceremonies of the brotherhood, and the funeral was otherwise numerously attended. Mr. Myers was the most prominent of the candidates for the mayoralty of Nashville.

—Old Brownlow is expected at Nashville in two weeks. His private secretary, H. H. Thomas, left for Knoxville Tuesday night.

—The election returns of four counties viz: Madison, Overton, Putnam and Sullivan, are yet to be received. Brownlow's majority has already reached 51,026. The vote, so far as heard from, stands: Brownlow, 72,922; Etheridge, 21,896.

ARKANSAS NEWS

—The Pine Bluff weekly Dispatch is pleased to find that proper attention is being paid to the introduction of white labor in that section, to the eventual total exclusion of the freedmen, who have for two years past been fairly tried and found lamentably wanting in every requisite to render them profitable to their employers. The same paper says: "Under the hard times we notice new buildings being erected all over the city. This is certainly an evidence that our people are looking ahead for something better."

—The Conservative gives the following as the completed registration for saline county: Whites, 715; negroes, 42; which is the most cheering exhibition in favor of a white man's government we have seen in some time!

—The Daily Gazette of the 6th instant gives quite as cheering news of registration in Crawhead county, viz: whites, 522; blacks, 47.

—The Fort Smith Herald says: We learn from Judge G. W. Gunter, of the Cherokee nation, that a company of Indians in pursuit of horse thieves, some time last week, on Grand river, above Fort Gibson, came upon a gang of them, and killed eighteen. Two or three made their escape. The thieves were mostly Cherokees and Creeks. This is doing business with a big anger in the way of killing off horse thieves. Some of our citizens say that they hope the company will extend their labors to this vicinity, as they feel certain they could find a few of the tribe of horse thieves who deserve the same fate.

A gentleman was surprised during the frosty weather to see his little daughter bring home from the Sunday school library a grave treatise on "backsliding." "My child," said he, "this is too old for you; you can't make anything of it." "I know it," was the artless reply, "but I thought I could when I took it. I thought it would teach me how to slide backward."

TEXAS ITEMS.

—The San Antonio Herald is glad to learn that the sickness has very much abated at Victoria and Indianola. The same paper says: There will be an average crop of cotton raised, in spite of the appearance of the worm, the extreme hot weather having in a great measure destroyed this troublesome insect. The prediction that the Indians of the northwest would be moving south seems to be true. Such Indians, and similarly accoutred, have never appeared before on our frontier. A large corn crop has been discovered on the head of the Guadalupe river. Small parties of soldiers have been chased into the forts. The country has been stripped of all the live stock, and the prospect of a complete devastation of the frontier is imminent."

The End of Jullien.

In 1857, his cornet-a-piston player, Koenig, died insane at Paris. The loss of one with whom he had been so long associated, had a serious effect on Jullien and from this period his energies seemed to fail; he was most anxious to return to France. His last concerts in London took place at the Lyceum in 1858. His last appearance in public was at the Free-Trade hall, Manchester, in the early part of February, 1859. After this he left England, broken in health and spirits. He went to Paris, where he was imprisoned for debt at Clichey. He was arrested as an Englishman, at the suit of an Englishman. This greatly excited his parental excitement, which had been for some time arranged to give some concerts on a grand scale at the Cirque Imperial, in the Champs Elysees. The first was to have taken place on March 22, 1859, but was postponed until 1860, but was postponed until 1860, but was postponed until 1860

LOYALTY to the Union of the States; FIDELITY to the Constitution in its true extent and meaning; Obedience to and maintenance of all law, State and National, constitutionally enacted.

RESISTANCE to Tyranny, Usurpation and Oppression, of one man or many; and to all encroachments upon the rights of freemen or of States, or upon the just and Constitutional prerogatives of any Department of the State or National Governments.

NO ESTABLISHMENTS of Military despotism, no enthroning of martial law, no suspension of the writ of Habeas Corpus, no sinking of citizens by Military Commission, no interference with the Cabrits, no lettres de cachet, in time of peace.

STRICT SUBORDINATION of the Military to the Civil Power.

NO STANDING ARMIES of States in time of peace.

RESTORATION of disfranchised citizens to all rights and privileges of which they have been disseized; no prosecutions or disqualifications for political opinions; for the PAST, oblivion of offences; for the PRESENT and FUTURE, UNION, PEACE, LAW and ORDER.

PERPETUAL ASSURANCE to all freemen of the African race, of all the CIVIL rights of freemen.

NO SECESSION, by State or Nation, of any honest and lawful debt.

NO REVIVAL of old party differences; but a Union of all Conservative men, of all former parties, who revere the Constitution, to restore the old land-marks of the Government.

NO LEGISLATION to plunder one portion of the country for the profit of another portion.

WHATEVER IS JUST; whatever is RIGHT; whatever is of GOOD REPUTE, and worthy of the descendants of English freemen.

FACILIS DESCENSUS AVERNI.

Easy is the descent into Hell, the Roman poet said; and so Nations and parties have often found it. Utter and overwhelming defeat is the bell of political parties, and down the slippery slope that ends at that, we do begin to believe the negro-suffrage, military-despotism party is rapidly sliding. If it once falls, it will fall like LUCIFER, never to rise again. In that limbo of the restless ghosts of deceased factions, the fallen spirits are saying of Radicalism:

There, above,
How using once bold themselves as mighty Kings,
Who here like us one shaft scathless in the sure,
Leaving behind them horrible despotism!

Negro suffrage is the rock on which the radical catamaran is, we believe, certain to be wrecked. Six negro and three or more mulatto States, are proving too much for the Northern stomach. HORACE GREELEY, like one who whistles to keep up his courage, pretends to rejoice at the dusky prospect, and hopes to see negroes in Congress. He may honestly desire it. We have ceased to consider any hallucination impossible. He says:

Such, we believe, is the latest-born hope of the unreconstructed, which is impelling them to say quietly to each other, "Let us give the north a surfeit of niggers. Let us serve them up stewed, broiled, fried, roasted and frieseed, until her gorge rises at them. Since we cannot ourselves gain success to convention or congress, because of the registry and the iron-clad oath, let us elect a big black nigger to every seat we can fill, and see how the radicals will relish their company."

We have already said that the idea was a good one, and we hope to see it generally adopted. The cards of the very few southern blacks who have announced themselves candidates for responsible positions are replete with modesty, patriotism and good sense. They are full in the assertion of equal human rights, but they are kindly, appeasing and (in the truest sense) conservative. If thirty negroes shall be sent to congress from the south, we shall confidently count on the votes of at least twenty-five of them for universal amnesty, thorough pacification, and the restoration to political rights of all who have conducted themselves as became good citizens since the collapse of the rebellion? We have seen but one white member of congress (not of all, but some) whose manners and bearing reflected little credit on their constituents. If John T. Harris, Robert Smalt, and other gentlemen of color, shall now be sent instead of those, we confidently anticipate a decided improvement on their predecessors of 1859-60. We beg that the unreconstructed to send us as many of these as possible.

On the other hand, the New York Herald says:

Military government! Negro supremacy! These are the ruling ideas that flash across the Atlantic and ring the death knell of the republic upon monarchical ears. Will the loyal states, east and west, consent to the overthrow of our institutions in this way? The president must topple over these barriers which retard our march. He must resuscitate the great principles of government which lie beneath them. He must lift these up into the new light that reception is pouring upon the situation. The first necessity is a new cabinet. The country cries to him to clear the wreck.

* * *

Will Mr. Johnson be satisfied with a simple change of persons in his cabinet? If so, he would only stultify himself and place himself in a far worse position than he occupied before Congress, upon reassembling in November, would refuse to confirm his suspension, place Stanton and the rest back again in their old positions, and undoubtedly carry out their long threatened policy of impeachment. No; having gone thus far, President Johnson is bound to take the next step that can effectually block the game of the radicals—to issue his proclamation of universal pardon to every man engaged in the rebellion, and thus restore to every white man in the south all his civil rights as a citizen of the United States. He has the full constitutional power for such action. He has already granted a large number of pardons, and if he can pardon one offender he can pardon thousands. The disfranchising clauses of the reconstruction acts of congress would then become inoperative, as the executive pardon would obliterate the offence and remove all the penalties imposed as a punishment therefor. With all these white men in the south restored to citizenship, and all the negroes enfranchised, the work of reconstruction would be complete, and one or the other would prevail, according to their legitimate relative strength. This would make the issue distinct between administration and the radicals: on the one side, general amnesty and universal suffrage; on the other, negro supremacy and a national government controlled by a coalition of the puritan and the nigger.

The daily papers are making a great muddle over the opinions of the prominent generals and the people at large on the question of reconstruction. They tell us that Grant approves of the course of the president, that Thomas agrees with Sheridan, and that Sherman favors the plan of congress or vice versa, according to their political bias. We can tell them all that if the congressional system is to put the south in possession of the negroes, it does not meet the views of the people, the sailors in our fleets, the soldiers in our armies, the merchants at their desks, the farmers at their ploughs, or any other large body of our citizens. A St. Domingo is not what we fought for; we do not want it, and shall not have it; and that the niggers, whether white or black, may understand as well first as last. Nations are cruel when driven to despair; and, rather than surrender our white nationality, we will massacre or enslave every colored man in the states. This may be bold language and unconventional, but we ask our readers whether it does not meet the confirmation of their hearts? We have sacrificed too many whites for a principle to stop at taking the lives of a few worthless blacks.

Well, what does the CITIZEN propose to do about it? Under the reconstruction acts, which President JOHNSON is now executing, "the negro States" and three negroloids are secured beyond a peradventure. The registered voters in each Province are to be the State. In Louisiana, South Carolina and Florida, the vote is two black to one white: in Alabama and Mississippi, the negroes have a very large majority; in Georgia, 2,000; Virginia, North Carolina and Tennessee are negroloid or mulatto. The white Radicals or Albinos are no-where, in either, without the negro vote. They are but as one to ten. Eighty thousand whites are disfranchised in Tennessee. How do you propose to help it? We propose to advise the negroes to claim the offices, and especially send their representative men to Congress. 'Rather Turk than Papist.' LUTHER is good authority. We prefer the negro to the Radical, even for civil offices in Memphis, and some judicial offices in the negroloid county called Shelby. If any of the colored brethren and Loyal Leaguers choose to run for the offices of Mayor and Aldermen, as we hope they will, we do not urge or advise Conservatives to vote for Radicals against them.

A Jacobin paper, published at Salem, in Massachusetts, says:

Although it has taken a great deal of time and cost us a vast amount of money, we have at last got the stolid Dutch of Pennsylvania and the verdant "Suckers" and "Buckeyes" of the western states educated up to the higher law standard. When a few years ago they spat upon us—the despised abolitionists—we determined that the negro as they called the colored man should be made their equals or we would crush the nation. Colored suffrage is now a fixed fact. The foot of the negro is now on the neck of our ancient revilers, and those who are not in our toils must stand from under.

The 'education' of California seems to have been sadly neglected. A year ago, she was overwhelmingly radical. A 'rebel,' unreconstructed, would have been quite as comfortable in Maine or Massachusetts, as there. Now, she has just elected a Democratic Governor by eight or ten thousand majority, and a democratic legislature; which secures the election of two Democratic Senators to Congress. The "Dutch of Pennsylvania" are quite likely, pretty certain, we think, to recalcitrate. We are not sanguine, but we think it is becoming quite clear that the Key-Stone State will resume her place in the Democratic line. There are indications, also, in Ohio, that give us hope that that great State will follow in the wake of Pennsylvania. Negro-suffrage is proving too strong a dose for Western stomachs. In that great region there is a little pride of race yet left; and if a New England Radical thinks himself no better than a negro, there are plenty of Western Republicans,—Saxons and Teutons too, who do not think the negro as good as themselves. The old Whigs, who were forced into Republicanism by the repeal of the Missouri compromise, have not lost or forgotten all their old principles, and will not swallow negro suffrage. For only two years ago, one would have said that only a crazy fanatic or thrice-sodden ass could be sincerely in favor of investing such a race with the power to destroy the Republic!

The Metropolitan Record says:

Now, as we have already intimated, this is just where we have the radicals. When they made voting-machines of Johnny and Sambo, they never in their penury, in for a penny, would go for a well go the whole hog at once, and have done with it; but only one thing you may feel assured, that whatever course you pursue, your race is nearly run.

THE NEWS FROM MAINE.

The intelligence which the telegraph wires flash from one end of the country to the other indicates that the long, dark night is coming to a close, and that the dawn is at length breaking. The aurora first sends its shafts of light from the North, destined to spread its rosy hues over the entire firmament. Following the favorable news from the Pacific State, the political revolution in Maine truly indicates that the back-bone of Radicalism has been broken, and that the Northern people have cut themselves loose from the iron fetters of the most remorseless tyranny with which a republican people were ever cursed. This revolution has succeeded upon the bold stroke of Mr. JOHNSON, in removing from his cabinet the bloodhound of the Radical party, E. M. STANTON, and the other measures with which he has followed it up—the proclamation, declaring the supremacy of the Constitution and the proclamation of amnesty. As long as the President himself seemed timid and irresolute, the people feared to announce their detestation of Radical doctrines and corruptions. But since they have learned that executive power can venture upon the vindication of their rights, they have begun to move in the majesty of numbers, and to proclaim in language of distinctness that coercion alone has hitherto stifled their free utterance. Who can doubt that the three great and populous States of New York, Pennsylvania and Ohio will put a quietus upon the damnable dogmas and still more damnable practices of the Jacobin party, and that they will utter forth in their coming elections the glorious news that the Union has been "redeemed, regenerated and disenthralled?"

CAMERON AND ALCORN.

According to that reliable and intelligent journal, the Grenada (Miss.) Sentinel, Col. CHAS. S. CAMERON of this city, met Hon. J. L. ALCORN in debate in that city on Thursday last, and so completely answered the arguments of the Mississippi Senator as to deserve and receive the enthusiastic thanks and applause of all the white portion of his audience. It is with regret that we are compelled, from want of space, to forego the pleasure of giving our readers some extracts from the masterly speech of our townsman.

Worse for Correction.

An editor, in a complimentary notice of a valiant general, was made, by the omission of a single letter, to call him a "battle-scared" veteran. The poor man hastened to make amends in his next issue by saying he meant "battle-scarred," but the compositor put it "bot-tle-scarred."

THE CALIFORNIA ELECTION.

From the following extracts for the press our readers will be able to gather the tone of Northern sentiment with respect to the late California election. The news seems to have fallen upon the opponents of Radicalism like a new and fresh inspiration, betokening the lifting up of the heavy cloud which has hung over the political heavens, and rested like an incubus upon the hearts of good men:

Radicalism in all its parts is shivered or driven to the wall. It is no defense to say that Gorham, the gubernatorial candidate of the radicals, was a lobby man and a corruptionist. His character in that regard was thoroughly known; and hence his nomination by a set of leaders of the same sort in all parts of the state. The radical advices thence to this side of the country were that Gorham would be defeated, but all else would be as before. But as nearly all the other radical candidates are either badly beaten, or are saved only by trifling majorities, it would seem that they approximated Gorham in political guilt. Probably the party, in the respect of its machinery, it leaders, great and small, is thoroughly corrupt. And therefore, in they do not probably differ materially from the like class throughout the country. Lawlessness, in nearly all forms, pervades the radical ranks. Corruption stalks unblushingly along them. Rapacity is the breath of the nostrils of radicalism. Spoliation of the public treasure is its life-blood. Venality and fraud mark its footsteps. Usurpation of the constitution; violation of law; defrauding exaction from the people; despotic military control of whites in the south, proscribing them in the exercise of suffrage, and enfranchising by force and fraud, mobs of negroes; corrupt legislation in the interests of class; assault upon the judiciary and contempt of its decrees; overthrow of civil authorities by the sword; disregard of oaths to accredit support the constitution; and usurpations upon co-ordinate powers—these, one and all, constitute the body and substance of radicalism.

Why should not the intelligent people of California, in full view of its enormities, and the calamities it is spreading like a pall over all the people of the land, refuse longer to march under its black and bloody banner?

From the New York Herald.]

The fact that the republican party in California was fast asunder by internal dissensions, and that such opposition vote has been materially increased, will materially influence the result of the elections in New York and Pennsylvania, and probably in Ohio. In the latter state the democrats have committed serious blunders, and will be damaged by their own folly. But in Pennsylvania and this state we shall not be surprised to see a general reaction, and the entire overthrow of the party that is seeking to control the government by a coalition of the Puritan and the nigger.

From the World:

Read this handwriting on the wall, ye disunionists who have squandered a third of the nation's wealth, a million of its lives; who have substituted a military despotism for republican liberty in ten of the sovereign states of the union, plundered the people with your paper tive tariffs, robbed them with your paper money and cursed them with a colossal debt. Read this handwriting on the wall and know your fate, for this is the beginning of the end of your power.

From the New York Tribune?

It is very poor satisfaction to be told in dispatches from California that the republicans might have elected a Democratic governor. A great many good things "might have been." There is scarcely a doubt that Haight is elected governor, and that Phelps be defeated for congress in the San Francisco district. More than this, the disaffection in our ranks imperils the legislature, and threatens a democrat in the place of United States Senator Conness. The defeat in itself is not of vital importance; but the manner in which it was brought about, and the elation it will produce in the ranks of the enemy, are not the most pleasant matters for reflection.

From the Philadelphia Age:]

The glorious news from California will cheer the true friends of the republic in all parts of the country, as the surrender of Yorktown did the patriots at the close of the war which gave a separate nationality to the American colonies. California has replied to Connecticut. The democrats of the east and the west are united in defense of the constitution and the rights of white men, and the tide of usurpation has been checked by the determined action of brave, self-sacrificing and patriotic men. This news from California will animate the party in this state in their contest with the enemies alike of the constitution and the rights of the states, and people under that instrument, and make victory a certainty. All honor to the democracy of California. They have fought a good fight, and the result will be celebrated amid the firing of cannon, the ringing of bells and the waving of flags in all parts of the north. In the name, then, of the lion-hearted democracy of California, we say to the party in this state, push on the column of democratic triumphs. The day is dawning, and

Freedom's battle once begun,
Bequeathed by bleeding sire to son,
Though baffled oft, is ever won.

THE TENURE-OF-OFFICE LAW.

In respect to the miserable "tenure-of-office law," which is a sort of earthwork for the defense of the robbers of the public treasure, who had been foisted upon the government before the accession of Mr. JOHNSON to the Presidency, we copy as follows from the New York Evening Post, (Rad.):

The last congress, exasperated because the president did not in general make his appointments to suit its members, passed a foolish law—the tenure-of-office act—which provides that "every person holding any civil office to which he has been appointed by and with the advice and consent of the senate, and every person who shall hereafter be appointed to any such office, and shall become duly qualified to act therein, is and shall be entitled to hold such office until a successor shall have been in like manner appointed and duly qualified."

The object of this act was to make the president about as powerless as the mayor of New York is. The constitution of the United States charges the president with the duty of seeing the laws executed; and to enable him to do this promptly and wisely, it authorized him to appoint but to remove at his own judgment, his subordinates.

This plan has always work well; under it the public service has been reasonably well conducted, and the people had always their remedy at hand for abuses; they looked to one man, the president, for their correction; he held him alone responsible for mal-administration; and they were able to punish him at the quadrennial elections.

Congress chose to change all this. Why? Because it happened that the president quarrelled with the majority in congress, and would not make his appointments conform to the wishes of members. It was not charged, so far as we know, that he appointed corrupt men to office. For such conduct he might, and ought to have been, impeached and removed. But he did not appoint the friends of members of congress, and so these members passed a law depriving him of the appointing power, and in the same measure relieving him of the responsibility which the constitution most wisely lays upon him.

THE WEEKLY LOTTERY AT ROME.

Every Saturday, precisely at the hour of noon, which is announced to Rome by the discharge of a cannon from the Castle of St. Angelo, takes place the ceremony of the public drawing of the weekly lottery, which, as is well known, is a most productive source of revenue to the government. In a balcony of the Palazzo Mandams, once the residence of Catherine de Medici, conspicuous in the sight of all the people gathered in the Piazza below, sits the violet-habited monsignore who presides over the proceedings. By the side of this representative of religion are ranged, with tables and writing materials in front of them, several officials and clerks, ready to enter in their ledgers the numbers drawn. In the center of the balcony, and behind the glass barrel which contains the lots, stands a lad wearing a long white garment reaching down to his heels, and a white broad-brimmed hat. He is the "ornafello," or young orphan boy, selected for the occasion to officiate as the high priest of the mysteries of the lottery. So much opening for dishonesty is there in the matter of the drawing, that only a very young boy will be unsuspected of some kind of juggling. At the stroke of twelve, the ornafello removes his hat and crosses himself solemnly; then, while the barrel is being turned, waves his open right hand backward and forward in the sight of all the people, to convince them that it is empty. This done, and the barrel being once more at rest, the boy plunges his hand in, and having drawn forth a lot, hands it to an official, who hands it to the monsignore, who hands it to another official, who proclaims the number drawn at the top of his voice to the multitude. In this manner five lots in all are drawn, and the five successful numbers are instantaneously flashed all over the city, and at once stuck up over the doors of the multitudinous branch offices, where lottery tickets and infamous cigars—also a government monopoly—are disposed of at small profit to the sellers, but to the great profit of the government, to a famishing and needy populace; for if it be not the case that the lower orders in general in this city are very hard put to it to keep body and soul together, how can any one otherwise account for the impatience with which the convent doors and other places where food is scented are besieged by starving crowds, who eagerly devour the fragments, however revolting they may be, which are sent out to them?

These questions will be decided in the order of presentation.

KAVANAGH & DECKER'S

BILLIARD TABLES

THE most reliable Cushion used on Billiard Tables is the

CAT-GUT CUSHION,

Manufactured by KAVANAGH & DECKER, and Patented Dec. 18, 1866. (See Scientific American, Vol. 16, No. 1.)

It is the only Cushion that possesses all the qualities essential to a Perfect Cushion. It is the most elastic and most durable cushion ever offered to the billiard-playing public, as is abundantly proven by the great demand for it since its late duction. The peculiarity which distinguishes the Cat-Gut Cushion and renders it superior to all others, is the tightened cord or cat-gut which overlies the face and edge of the rubber cushion, running the full length of the rubber and jumping from the table into the rubber and gut cushion. The addition of the cat-gut cord also adds much to the elasticity of the cushion.

The Cat-Gut Cushion has already been applied to over 100 tables, which are in constant use. It can be applied to tables of any make, too. It can be applied to tables of any make, too. It can be applied to tables of any make, for $5 per set.

Kavanagh & Decker's Factory, at the corner of Centre and Canal streets, N. Y., is the most complete of its kind in the world. The machinery is of the most improved character, the lumber dry-ing room the largest in the United States, the material used the best that can be purchased, and the workmen thoroughly skilled.

Billiard Cloth, Balls, Cues and Trimmings, all of the best make, constantly on hand.

Kavanagh & Decker are the only agents in this country for Kay's Cite Cement, adjudged by competent authorities to be the best Cement ever used.

Full size Tables cut down for $100.

WANTED—THE PATENT

AURORA OIL.

We want men every where to study their own INTEREST. The right to manufacture and sell the Patent Aurora Oil in a single county will make more money to the purchaser in three months than the largest farm in your State will make in a whole year. The Aurora Oil actually costs less than half the price of Coal Oil, and the illuminating power of the Aurora Oil is as much superior to the Coal Oil as the Coal Oil is to a tallow candle, and is as free from smoke than a tallow candle. Any one can explosive than a tallow candle. Any one can burn the Aurora Oil or will burn the Aurora Oil. It does not smoke the chimney—it has no smell—it will not grease or stain the finest linen—not even white cloth. The material for manufacture is inexhaustible. One man can make seventy-five barrels per day. No machinery required. We will pay your No machinery required. We will pay your fare to and from the city of Memphis and bills while here, if we cannot prove all, and even more, than we have stated. A single county is a small fortune to the man of enterprise, and the right to a State is untold wealth.

— ED. MANSFORD,
Supt. of Circulation.

FRESH AND GOOD.—We are indebted to our friend A. Bliss, No. 7½ Madison street, for a can of fresh oysters, the first of the season. We have tried them, and know they are good. The caterer of the "Jimplecute" says so, too.

FREIGHT RECEIPTS.—The receipts of freight by the Memphis and Louisville road are published in our local columns this morning. Hereafter they will be found daily under the head of "Commercial," on our fourth page.

POLICE MATTERS.—The old saying that there is always a calm after a storm, was fulfilled yesterday. After a night of horror and bloodshed in the first district, everything seemed to settle down quietly, only two arrests having been made up to dark last night. But with all this, it is hard to tell what a night may bring forth.

FIRST FROM TENNESSEE.—The first bale of new cotton sent to market from this state was received here yesterday by J. T. Petit & Co., and sold to that veteran broker, Brunson Bayliss, at thirty cents. It was raised on the plantation of Hon. J. S. McCall, in Tipton county. Bayliss still keeps the horns as about the first man in the trade.

BALL TO-NIGHT.—The grand ball to be given to the delegates of the base ball state convention will come off to-night at the Greenlaw Opera House. The various committees in charge have made the necessary arrangements, and the ball promises to be a brilliant affair. Tickets can be obtained of the committee of arrangements.

FOUND DROWNED.—In the absence of the coroner, Mr. Justice Miller was called upon yesterday to hold an inquest on the body of an unknown white man, who was found floating in the river near Union street. He appeared to be about thirty-five years of age, and was considerably bruised about the head. No papers were found to identify him. The jury found a verdict that the deceased came to his death from drowning.

MYSTERIOUS DISAPPEARANCE.—Mr. S. Harriss, of the firm of Gilbert & Harriss, No. 282 Second street, disappeared on the night of the 9th, immediately after supper, and has not since been heard from. Mr. Harriss is about forty-five years old, six feet high, of spare build, no whiskers, dark hair, had on light pants and vest, black sack coat and dark hat. It is feared by his friends that he has been the victim of foul play. Any information concerning him will be gladly received at 282 Second street.

RENTING TO PROSTITUTES.—The alleged lessor of a portion, if not the whole of the Webster block, Mr. W. B. Knight, was arrested yesterday, charged with renting apartments to prostitutes. He put up the usual forfeit, and will have a hearing before Commissioner Richards this morning. If the lessees of property would strenuously refuse to rent rooms to the "polite and attentive lady waiters," they would speedily seek some other camping ground, or have either remove outside the corporate limits or move up the river.

LARCENY.—A member of the colored persuasion, named Benton Irby, was received at the county prison yesterday, there to be kept to await the action of the grand jury and criminal court, charged with grand larceny. It appears that Irby was of the opinion that a portion of the property of his white fellow-citizen belonged to him. Failing to get the promised forty acres, he borrowed a mule, without leave, to search for a camping ground. The owner not relishing the joke, made complaint to Justice Goodlett, who, in his hardness of heart, sent poor Irby up, in default of bonds for $1000.

MEMPHIS AND CHARLESTON RAILROAD COMPANY.—At an election held yesterday for directors of the Memphis and Charleston railroad company, for the coming year, the following gentlemen were unanimously elected: Sam Tate, Geo. P. Helme, Jas. I. Donegan, Jos. C. Bradley, Sam D. Weakley, R. C. Brinkley, Pitser Miller, M. J. Wicks, Wm. Dickson. These gentlemen constitute the old board, and the stockholders have shown their appreciation of their services by re-electing them unanimously. We understand that a meeting of the board is called for Monday afternoon next, at three o'clock, for the purpose of organization, and the consideration of such business as may be brought before it.

DIED AMONG STRANGERS.—The following communication speaks for itself. We publish it in full:

COLUMBUS, Mo., August 8, 1867.
To the Editors of the Memphis Appeal:

Died in this place on the 6th instant, of congestion of the brain, W. R. Mitchel, aged forty-seven years.

This man came here about three weeks ago, and was taken sick very suddenly, and died without giving any history of the whereabouts of his relatives, only that he had a consumptive wife, and that his family resided in Tennessee. He was a plasterer by trade, and said he had worked on the Opera house in Memphis. For further information address W. H. POWELL.
Columbia, Mo.

SHOOTING ON MAIN STREET.—Nearly opposite the Overton hotel is situated an institution, with the attractive sign and known as the "concert musical hall, and there to find a free concert and entertainment by the creme de la creme of beer jerkerdom. In the rear may be found a keno room. A young man named McClanahan went into this delectable retreat, where he was insulted by a United States soldier—J. M. Maxby which he resented by striking, with a cane. The pet in blue drew a pistol, when Mc left, and as he was going down stairs he received a shot in the left shoulder blade. The wound is not dangerous, although rather severe. McClanahan is a quiet, sober young man, but unfortunately got into bad company this time. No respectable man should be found at such places.

IMPORTANT TO ALL CLASSES.—In a city like Memphis—the center of trade for not only a large portion of our own state, but for that of North Mississippi, Northern Alabama and a large portion of Arkansas—the establishment of extensive agricultural warehouses are very important. In our wandering yesterday, seeing the sights, we happened to stroll into the mammoth warehouse of Messrs. Matthews & Alexander, No. 272 Second street, where is to be found one of the largest stocks of agricultural implements, machinery, etc., of any house in the southwest. Anything, from a wheelbarrow to the largest steam engine, can be purchased or ordered from this firm, while planters and country dealers can find all the farming implements on sale, from a hame-strap to a cotton gin, including looms, etc. They are also agents for the most approved safes. The firm is composed of Capt. R. C. Matthews, late of the firm of Lewis, Matthews & Co., who served during the war under Bragg, Morgan and Forrest, and proved himself to be as good a soldier as he is now a thorough, energetic business man. His partner, Capt. J. C. Alexander, is a native of Kentucky, and did good service in the trans-Mississippi army during the war. He is well known in Arkansas, particularly in the vicinity of Friar's Point. The friends and customers of this firm will always find them on hand and alive to business. See their card in another column.

THE FIVE POINTS OF MEMPHIS

THE COTTON PLANT NOT BEHIND HAND IN BLOOD.

One Man Badly Beaten and Another Shot in the Webster Block.

One of those notorious places of underground amusements with which Memphis is cursed was the scene Tuesday night of a free fight, in which clubs, Knives, etc., were freely used. The location was the Cotton Plant saloon, situated on Washington street, between Main and Front. Some difficulty took place between two of the visitors named Thos. Crowan and Thos. Cronan. The former was badly cut about the head, and received a pair of black peepers, with other wounds. The police arrived at the close of the fight, arrested the two principals, together with one of two lookers-on, and took them to the station house, where they had an interview with the recorder Wednesday morning. About the same time that the affair took place the citizens in the vicinity of the Webster block, were aroused by the cries of murder, uttered by a man in the pavement, who, on being questioned, told, in substance, the same tale: He said his name was James Carroll, that he lived in the country, and visited the Varieties on Washington street, for amusement. While there he became fascinated with one of the so-called lady waiters, who gave him the cold shoulder, and told him to go up and make himself comfortable and she would come after the performance. He went as directed. Shortly after midnight the fair Cora came home, accompanied by Jas. Stokes, who, finding another man in the room, beat him rather badly about the head. Carroll made his escape, crying murder, which called the police to the spot. Officers John Gerard and Charley Scott went up stairs to the room for the purpose of arresting Stokes. He fastened the door and refused to open it. Officer Scott fired through the window, as also did Gear, two of the shots taking effect on Stokes—one in the face and the other in his right shoulder. The police alleged that Stokes threw two derringers and defied the police, but this statement is denied by Stokes. Dr. Watkins, of the Adams street infirmary, was called in, and dressed the wounds. It was at first feared that they would prove fatal, but at a late hour last night strong hopes were entertained of his recovery. He has been removed from the Webster block to the residence of his mother on Winchester street. The fact that a very large majority of the fights, cutting and shooting affrays which have happened in the city during the past eight months have occurred in the vicinity of Washington and Main streets, where these low-working saloons are established, and can be traced directly or indirectly to this source, is well known, and the inquiry is often made, why do not the authorities break them up. It may be well to state that the board of mayor and aldermen did pass an ordinance abolishing the "attentive lady waiter" business, but the proprietors of these establishments got out an injunction and kept their girls. We repeat what we have said before, that these sinks of iniquity and houses of "polite and attentive lady waiters" are employed should be at once abolished. To enable a few low concert saloons and dance houses to flourish, Memphis is but selling to her hell carried bloody and damaging notoriety. Well may the right thinking citizen ask, how long are we to be cursed with such a moral leper?

SURGICAL OPERATION.—Yesterday morning, about ten o'clock, an interesting surgical operation was performed at the Watkins infirmary by Dr. Joe E. Lynch. The patient was a boy named John Gillan, aged fifteen years, the son of a poor widow. He was suffering severely from stone in the bladder, and was taken to the infirmary for relief. Dr. Lynch decided upon performing the operation of extracting the stone by means of an incision, an operation for which patients have heretofore been sent to other cities. A number of the leading physicians of the city were in attendance to witness the operation. The operation was successfully performed, and a stone about the size of a small peach stone, and somewhat resembling one in appearance, and weighing about sixty grains, was extracted. The patient is doing well.

SERENADE.—Alderman Thomas O. Smith, of the Seventh ward, was the recipient last night of a serenade at his residence. The alderman, in a few well-timed and appropriate remarks, thanked his fellow-citizens for this mark of their esteem, and pledged himself to pursue in the future as in the past, an independent course, and always to befriend the poor man. His remarks were well received, the band playing "He's a Jolly Good Fellow."

MAIL CONTRACT.—The contract for carrying the United States mail between this city and Vicksburg, awarded to Capt. Wm. Elliott recently, will insure a river mail to way points twice a week each way. For this service Capt. Elliott will receive $16,000 per annum. Capt. Elliott is thoroughly reliable, and the government and citizens directly interested may rely upon it that the contract will be faithfully carried out.

COTTON FACTORS.—It is with pleasure we call the attention of our readers to the card of Messrs. F. Lane & Co., to be found in another column. This house is perfectly reliable, and never fails to please their patrons. The Messrs. Lane, with J. H. Martin, make a strong team, and will drive business with profit and satisfaction to their customers. Their office is on the corner of Union and Front streets. Call and see them.

HEALTH MATTERS.

MEETING OF THE BOARD OF HEALTH.

Conference of the Joint Committees, Etc.

At a meeting of the board of health, held yesterday at Dr. W. E. Rogers' office, to confer with the committee of mayor and aldermen appointed to act upon the resolution of the board of health in regard to establishing quarantine, President Irwin was in the chair. Members present: Drs. A. K. Taylor, O. B. Kingde, F. S. Sim, Paul H. Otey, R. F. Brown, J. F. Pilman.

On motion of Dr. Taylor a committee of three were appointed by the board of health—Drs. Otey, Sim and Brown. The president was added to the committee to confer with the committee of mayor and aldermen.

At a meeting of the joint committees appointed by the board of health and board of aldermen, held subsequently, Dr. W. T. Irwin was called to the chair, and the following resolution offered by Alderman Ruffin was passed:

Resolved, That a committee composed of the chairman, mayor, and a member of the board of health, be appointed by the chairman's committee to make the necessary arrangements to establish a quarantine immediately.

Alderman Annis moved to lay the resolution on the table, which was lost.

The resolution was then passed, and the chairman appointed Dr. R. F. Brown. Business engagements prevented his honor the mayor from serving, and Alderman Cochran was substituted instead.

About six o'clock last evening the joint committees of the board of health and board of mayor and aldermen, went down the river as far as President's island, to take observations, the steam tug "Nellie" having been generously placed at their disposal by Messrs. Bigley & Mellersh. The party consisted of Aldermen Ruffin, Cochran and Annis, Drs. Irwin, Knedler and Rogers. His honor the mayor was unable to be present. The committee made a careful investigation, and visited the various points near the island, and although no decisive action was taken in the premises, it was understood to be the opinion of the majority that the Star wharfboat should be sent down and a quarantine established at the head of the committees, by resolution, thanked Capt. Geo. Mellersh for his kindness in giving them the use of the steam-tug Nellie, to which the captain replied, saying it was always at their service for the public good. Joint committees meet to-day at 11:30.

Our Latest Improved

GROVESTEEN & CO.,

499 Broadway, N. Y.

THESE instruments, after the most flattering testimonials from the first Pianists in the country, who, at our solicitation, have tested them in the severest manner possible, have been pronounced THE FINEST SQUARE PIANO-FORTE MADE IN THE WORLD.

It has always been our policy during the thirty-six years that we have manufactured Pianos, twelve thousand of which are now in use in the United States and Europe, to give the best finished instrument at the lowest cost. Our superior facilities enable us to offer them from one to three hundred dollars less than any other First Class House.

Each one of these instruments are remarkable for their peculiar Sweetness and Great Brilliancy, never losing their quality when forced to their utmost capacity. The tone long sustained, retaining its positiveness does not destroy the middle and upper registers by taking away from them that desirable combination, that delicate beauty of tone being equally delightful to the unpracticed and to the most cultivated ear.

They are also entirely new style of Piano, finished in the most superb manner, with four full round corners, front and back, beautifully carved legs and Lyre Sempentine Base richly moulded, and each instrument is fully warranted for five years. se2d&wly

AUGUST, 1867.

THE First Drawing, which took place at Hernando, Miss., on the 15th inst., was attended with unusual success, when it is remembered that but a few months have passed since the inception of the enterprise to that event. $17,000 worth of tickets having been sold, a like amount of property was drawn for, under the supervision of gentlemen selected by the ticket holders present. The utmost harmony and good feeling pervaded those present, and, as will be seen from the subjoined certificate of the Managers, all was conducted to a close in a most gratifying and satisfactory manner:

HERNANDO, MISS., June 15, 1867.

We hereby certify that the above report of the First Drawing of the Southern Asylum Land Company, for the Drawings were characterized by a spirit of fairness and justness unsurpassed by any Drawing of which we have any knowledge. The Managers of the Company placed the tickets and wheels under our sole management and control.

MEMPHIS APPEAL

I MAY NOT LOVE YOU.

I may not love you, but within me I bear
When night and darkness set my spirit free,
And I sit musing from the world apart,
Listen to a low, deep voice that tells of thee,
That voice is sweet and mournful as the tone
Of far off music heard in sleep,
Or the wild cadence of a spirit lone
O'er the hushed waters of the mid night deep.

I may not love you, but thy blessed look
Forever haunts my soul when thou art far;
It glances upward from each moonlit brook,
And downward from each bright and holy star.

It's hinged in each flower that lifts its eye,
At morn to greet the sunshine and the dew,
And in each fairy cloud that wanders by,
Floating in beauty over the mountain blue.

I may not love you, but thy gentle words
Can stir within my soul its band of fears,
And wake the echo of my heart's deep chords,
Like some sweet melody of early years.

I may not love you, but thy image seems
A loving radiance to my spirit given,
For, in it picture there in my dreams
Of bliss on earth and blessedness in heaven.

FINANCIAL AND COMMERCIAL.

OFFICE OF THE DAILY APPEAL, }
MEMPHIS, September 11, 1867. }

Gold opened in New York at 44½—it fell to 44⅜—at 2 p.m. had reached 45⅛ and closed at same. In this market the offerings were light. Early in the day 42 to 42½c was the buying rates, but dealers would have taken any if presented at 41½ towards the close.

Silver closed at 33 to 35c buying with no sales to note.

Rates of exchange grow easier under the light demand. Drafts on New York are selling at ¼ to ⅜ premium, while between bankers most transactions are at par to $1 per $1000.

City scrip has not yet reached bottom. Dealers are not at all anxious to buy and their offering rates are not alike. Some would pay but 45c, while others offer 48c. The selling rate is universal at 50c with but a light demand. One lot of $1000 was taken at the latter figure.

County warrants have become more animated and brokers offer 67 to 70c. Selling at 75c.

Police scrip is unchanged and nominal at 75c buying. Selling at 78 to 80c.

Bonds, stocks and uncurrent money are dull at our quotations.

The London Times of a late date says:

The daily increasing prospect of a long continuance of the accumulation of bullion in all the European money markets fails to produce the slightest effect upon prices, and consols have again been inactive to-day at 94¼ to 94⅜ for delivery, and 94⅛ to 94⅜ for the account. At the bank there is an almost total absence of discount demand, and in the stock Exchange and elsewhere it is difficult to obtain even one per cent. for the use of floating balances. From the steadiness of the continental exchanges, and the large arrival of silver by the West India mail, it is probable that further amounts of gold will be sent next week into the bank, where there has already been an increase of four millions and a quarter since the beginning of the year, notwithstanding the large orders already executed for grain and the call that has always to be met at this season for the requirements of the harvest and for home and foreign travel. At the bank of France the addition to the stock of bullion since the first of January has been eight millions sterling, and the total now held is exactly five times as large as that at the beginning of 1864. The fact that under these circumstances the spectacle is presented of foreign states of all kinds being unable to raise loans even of small amount at seven per cent., and of the shares of public companies which still purport to be earning dividends at rates ranging from five to fifteen per cent. being nearly unsalable on any terms, constitutes a lesson to nations and individuals on the consequence of final laxity never before enforced on such a scale.

The cotton market was still lower today and the one or two buyers had it all their own way. Samples were met very frequently on the street, and holders did not conceal their anxiety to sell. The decline here has been proportionately much too great, and will not exert a good effect on the planter or medium in a hurry to send forward his new crop. Everybody is aware that the Memphis market heretofore has been the best selling market in the south. We hope there may be no cause for changing that opinion. The receipts to-day were 41 bales. Shipments, 12 bales. We quote the market dull and declining:

Ordinary	16 @17
Good Ordinary	18 @20
Low Middling	21 @22
Middling	23 @23½
Strict Middling	24 @25
Good Middling	26 @27

The only noticeable incident aside from the continued advance in meats which we have to report to-day is the arrival of a lot of new shelled corn raised in this county and thrown upon the market at $1.45 per bushel. The amount, for sample, is small, but it may be the forerunner of that which is to come. It is sound, dry, and in every respect equal to northern grain, but is somewhat smaller in size. There has been no arrivals from above for the past two days and corn has become very scarce. The local demand continues light and holders ask $1 20 per bushel for white and yellow from store, and in some instances $1 25. Oats are in fair supply—equal to the demand and sell from store at 70c. None on levee. Meal is not plentiful but sells at $5 50. An advance in price per barrel was demanded but we could learn of no sales. Hay is plentiful in store but none on levee. Prime timothy sells at $22. India bagging, 29 to 30c; Kentucky power loom, 28c; hand, 29 to 27½; machine rope, 11 to 12c. Potatoes are more plentiful; selling at $4 to $4 50. Onions, dull $4 50 to $4 75. Apples are in light supply and held at $2 to $3, as to condition. Choice butter, 35 to 37c; common, 20 to 30c. Chickens are dull—young, $4 to $4 50; old, $5 to $6. Coffee, Rio, 25 to 27½c. Eggs scarce at 25 to 27c. Flour, dull; fine, $6 50 to $7; superfine, $7 50 to $8; X, $9 to $10; XX, $10 50 to $11; XXX, and all fancy brands, $12 to $13. Lard in tierces, 13½ to 14c; kegs, 15 to 15½c. Mess pork, $27 50 to $28; mess beef, $16 50; clear sides, firm at 19½ to 20c; shoulders, 15 to 16c; canvassed hams, 19 to 21c; sugar cured, 22 to 23½c. Salt, $3 25 per bbl. Sugar, 17 to 20c for crushed and clarified; 14½ to 17c for brown. Western Reserve cheese, 14 to 15c; factory, 15 to 16c. Whisky, common, $1 65 to $2.

The first bale of Tennessee cotton arrived here to-day. It was classed strict middling, was raised on the plantation of J. M. Neal, Tipton county, and was consigned to Messrs. J. T. Petit & Co. of this city.

The potato rot has extended to nearly all the eastern states.

At a recent meeting of the Nashville chamber of commerce committees of fifteen citizens, representing all branches of trade, was appointed to make arrangements with regard to inviting the people living along the line of the Nashville and Northwestern road to visit that city and ascertain its commercial advantages.

It is said that a company of Germans is organizing in San Francisco to induce emigration from the old world to Sitka; they intend to establish agencies for this purpose in the large German cities.

A report comes from Vienna that this government is treating with that of Denmark for the purchase of the Virgin islands, and that the sum offered is $8,000,000 in gold. If the bargain is struck we shall get three islands of some little size—St. Thomas, Santa Cruz and St. John, and several others of no importance. The group was discovered by Columbus on his second voyage, in 1494. Between Florida and these islands lie the four pieces of manifest destiny—Cuba, the Bahamas, San Domingo and Porto Rico.

Santa Cruz is the most important, having an area of 78 square miles, and a population, in 1850, of 23,729. St. Thomas comes next, with 27 square miles and 13,666 inhabitants. St. John has 22 square miles, and a population of 2258.

Santa Cruz is about twenty miles long, from two to six miles wide, generally flat, well watered, moderately fertile, unhealthful, and subject to droughts, hurricanes, and earthquakes. About two-fifths of the land is planted with cane, and the annual sugar crop varies from 12,000 to 40,00 hogsheads. The cultivation of cotton, indigo, and coffee has dwindled to almost nothing. The harbor of the capital town, Christianstadt, has a bad entrance, and is full of shoals.

St. Thomas is about twelve miles long, less than three miles wide, rugged, bare of woods, parched, and sterile. The area of cultivated land is only 2500 acres, half of which is given to sugar. The free port of Charlotte Amalia is the center of a large trade. The annual importation is estimated at $5,000,000, and the number of ships touching at the port in 1866 was 2196.

St. John is about twelve miles long, four miles wide, very uneven, with little water, and a poor soil. Small crops of sugar and cotton are raised, and some care is given to the raising of live stock.

There is good anchorage at Christiansborg.

MISCELLANEOUS.

Business was at a stand-still on the river yesterday. The packets due from above were detained by low water, and the usual amount of activity around the packet landing was thereby lost.

By a dispatch to Capt. Nat. Green, we learn that the Pilgrim leaves St. Louis for the Arkansas to-day, and the Guidon will follow in a few days. Capt. Ike Whittaker commands the Pilgrim and Lee Finney is in the office.

The Rowena, Capt. Davis, leaves on Saturday for White river.

The Gleaner, Capt. King, leaves for Little Rock on Friday at 5 d.m.

The Champion, Capt. Gregg, leaves for Cincinnati on Saturday next.

The fine steamer Belle St. Louis will leave for Memphis at St. Louis to-day at 5 p.m. Capt. Zeigler is master and Billy Blenker clerk.

The Natoma will not leave for St. Francis river. The water is too low, we suppose.

The City of Alton was aground at Phillips' bar thirty-six hours. She was pulled off by the Nightingale. The Kilgour was sounding when the Alton got under way.

The fine steamer Nightingale, Capt. Frazier, will leave for Vicksburg to-day at 10 o'clock.

The safe of the Wm. White was robbed of $2000 while lying at the Evansville wharf on the night of the 8th.

The steamer Lee is being slowly forced into the river by huge levers worked by an engine of the Marine Ways.

The Northwestern Union packet company are having a little trouble with the county commissioners of Rumsey county, Minn., in regard to the taxation of the company. The assessor has assessed the company at eight hundred thousand dollars, to which the secretary of the company objects, declaring that the assessor avers that the statutes take express cognizance of, and seem to have been prepared to meet just such cases as this.

The following resolution was passed by the Louisville Marine Association at the last regular meeting:

Resolved, That ralitos or owners not belonging to this association, or any other, cannot employ the services of any agent to work for him until his petition for membership has been acted upon.

We some days ago gave a copy of the new bill of lading which has created so much bad feeling at Cincinnati. We now give a copy of the New Orleans bill of lading recently adopted:

"Received, New Orleans, ——1867, from ——— in apparent good order, on board steamer ——, to be delivered without unavoidable delay (the dangers of navigation, fire, explosion and collision excepted) unto ———, at ——, on wharfboat or landing, ten feet from water's edge, where carrier's responsibility shall cease (without reclamation for breakage, damage or loss of contents) they paying freights at card rates, or ——— and charges ——— marks and articles as per margin, with privilege of lightering, reshipping as shipper's agent. Freight earned to the point of reshipment to be collected as charges without recourse. Signed in duplicate by master, clerk or agent."

The Vicksburg Times of Tuesday says: From authorized sources, we understand that all up stream cargoes will be inspected by the health officer, and whatever is passed,
